Prospectus

Exhibition Summary. The University Heights Arts Association produces exhibitions at Buffalo's Best Grill (3700 Southwestern Blvd. In Orchard Park) as part of their Art Partnering Program, which places art in local businesses throughout Western New York.

GUIDELINES

Open to two-dimensional art. Items must be original, framed according to our guidelines, and ready to hang.

Number of Entries. For a solo exhibition, 8-12 works of art may be included, depending on the size of the work. For a two person exhibition, up to 6 works of art per artist may be included. Contact us at information@uhartsgroup.com regarding small group exhibitions.

Eligibility. These exhibitions are open to:

- 1) members of the UHAA
- 2) residents of Western New York
- 3) guest artists from beyond Western New York

Themes. Work exhibited at this location must be Buffalo or Western New York-themed.

Sales and Display of Works. The artist is invited to sell their exhibited work. Neither the UHAA nor Buffalo's Best Grill charge a fee for sold work. Sales take place at the close of the exhibition. Exhibited works must be retrieved from the UHAA at Buffalo's Best Grill at the close of the exhibition.

Exhibition Tags. The UHAA will print exhibition tags containing information about each work of art. All tags include a QR cell phone code containing additional information about the art, the artist, the exhibition, Buffalo's Best Grill, and the UHAA Art Partnering Program. Prices will be added to the exhibition tags if the work is for sale.

Advertising. The UHAA will develop and print a poster and postcard annually advertising all of the exhibitions at Buffalo's Best Grill for a calendar year. An additional poster and postcard will be designed for each exhibition. A complimentary print copy of all posters and the postcard will be given to exhibiting artists. PDF files of all printed material will be made available to artists who wish to print copies on their own. Exhibitions are extensively advertised through through local media.

Entry Fee. UHAA members: Free. Non-members: $10. per exhibition.
Make checks payable to: The University Heights Arts Association.

Liability. Neither the University Heights Arts Association nor Buffalo's Best Grill assumes liability for loss or damage of work. Artists are invited to insure their own work.

Schedule: Exhibitions last for approximately three months.
